

Plough Wednesday January 16th 2013
An annual day on agricultural and rural issues

In Haddenham and Kingsey
10am – 4pm

Hosted by the Revd Margot and Dr Martin Hodson
Authors of Climate Change, Faith and Rural Communities

"We are delighted to be hosting this exciting day focussing on sustainability"

Itinerary

10 am ARRIVALS

St Mary's Church Centre, Haddenham, Bucks HP17 8AH
Coffee and opening Prayer

Tour of Manor Farm growing biomass, willow coppicing and Miscanthus
(Wear Warm Clothes and suitable footwear please)

Presentation on Haddenham in Transition
Lunch (donations bowl to cover costs)
Launch of Food Matters 2103 by Matt Freer Diocesan Environment Officer
See: www.foodmatters.org

Visit to Haddenham St Mary's Church, EcoSchool status

Visit to Kingsey Church
Presentation on Breakfast Service
Closing worship ending by 4pm

BOOKING IS ESSENTIAL—please BOOK BY DECEMBER 16TH 2013

To book your place contact the Diocesan Rural Officer
Revd Canon Glyn Evans DL,
glynevans@gmail.com
07581491713

Chelmscote Cottage, Brailes, Banbury OX15 5JJ